News Release

03/10/2014

Sheriff Lavender reports that Patrol Deputies working on his S.T.O.P.P initiative had a successful weekend. Sheriff Lavender is pleased to announce that four of the many traffic stops that his deputies conducted over the weekend resulted in illegal drugs being seized and taken out of the community.

The seizures were all a result of the Sheriff's Office renewed focus on putting a stop to illegal drug activity in Ross County called S.T.O.P.P. (Stop Trafficking or Pay the Price.)

Sheriff Lavender would like to thank his entire patrol division for their efforts over the weekend.
